

VOTE PADOAN FOR EDITOR-IN-CHIEF

3 PLEDGES:

- To be punctual, efficient, and professional in my approach towards editing to put our contributors first
- To promote inclusivity and freedom of expression to truly unlock the stylistic and creative potential of our writers
- To offer more transparency and improve communications, demonstrating a cohesive and effective approach towards the editing process

MY PLAN:

It is crucial for YSTT to have a punctual, inclusive, and enthusiastic Editor-in-Chief. I will aim to ensure that our policy papers and Cortado Journal issues are edited and templated promptly, to maintain relevancy and put our writers first. There have been serious failures of communication between the editorial team and our contributors, and my promise to you, is that I will help us build a more cohesive, cooperative society.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Frequent and long-standing contributor to the Cortado Journal
- I have success in both local and digital journalism, from front-page stories to interviewing politicians – I know what it takes to produce quality work
- Outside of editorial duties, I believe that I have the charisma and creativity needed to boost membership, increase exposure, and develop a new vision for our society
